

Week 8/9 Review

Hi Denis, here is some screens of the software I did, the patient history isn't full working yet , but everything else is . :)

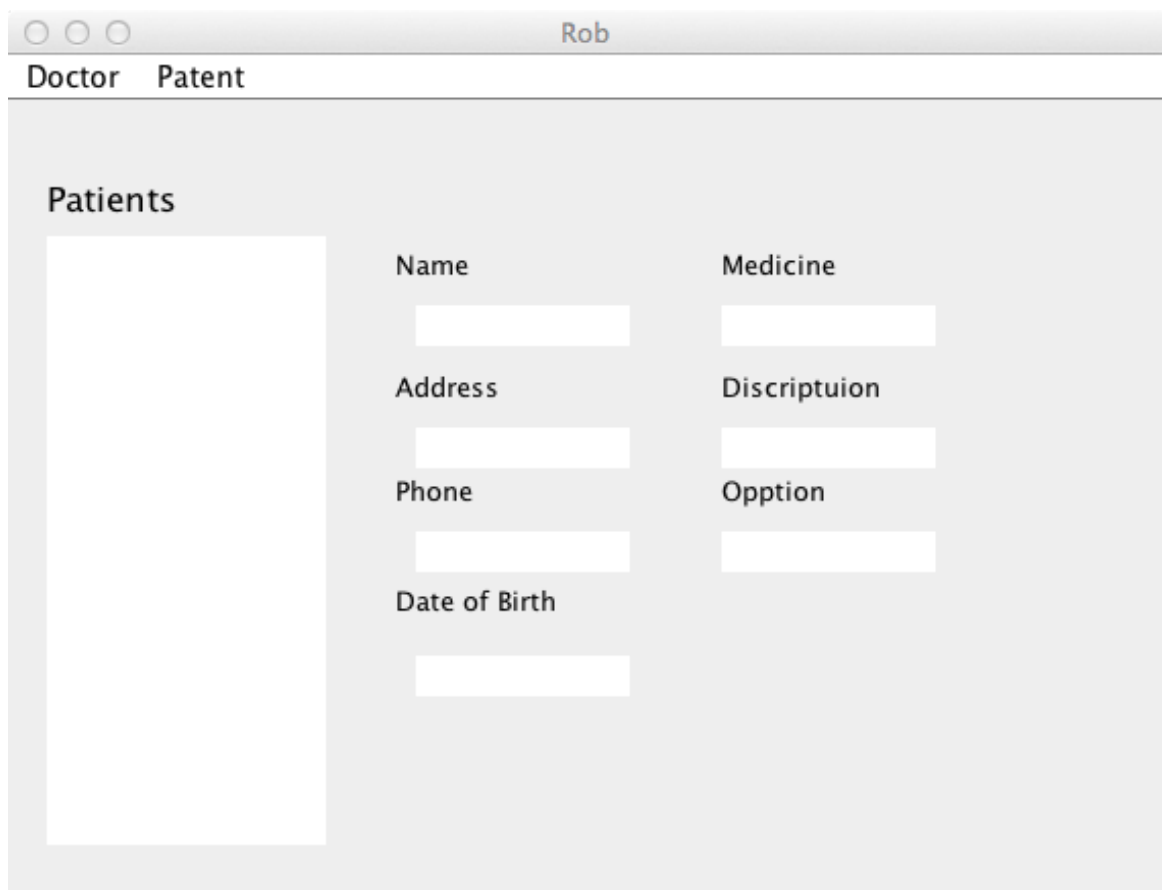

Hope you enjoy.

Login

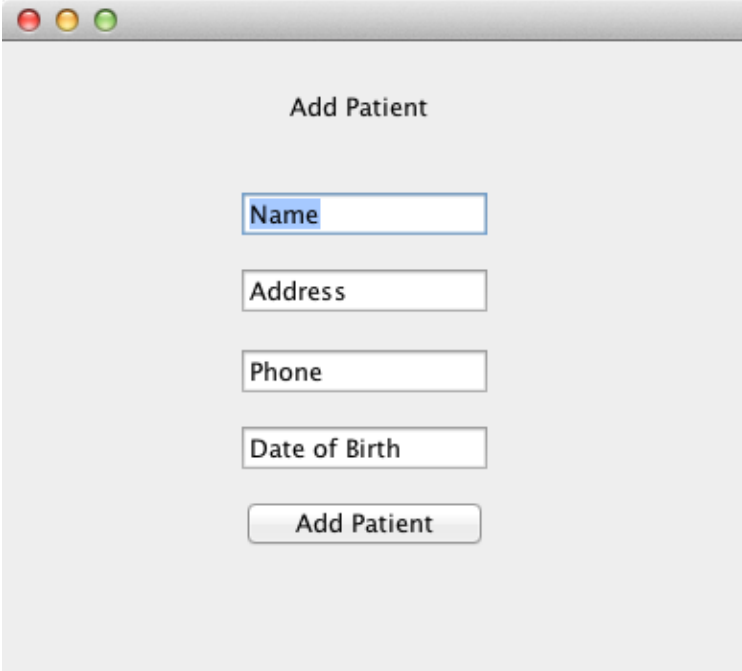

A mockup of a login window. The window has a title bar with three window control buttons (minimize, maximize, close) and the title "Login". The main content area is light gray. In the center, the word "Login" is displayed. Below it, there are two text input fields. The first field contains the text "Rob". The second field contains a single bullet point. Below the input fields is a button labeled "Sign In".

MainWindow

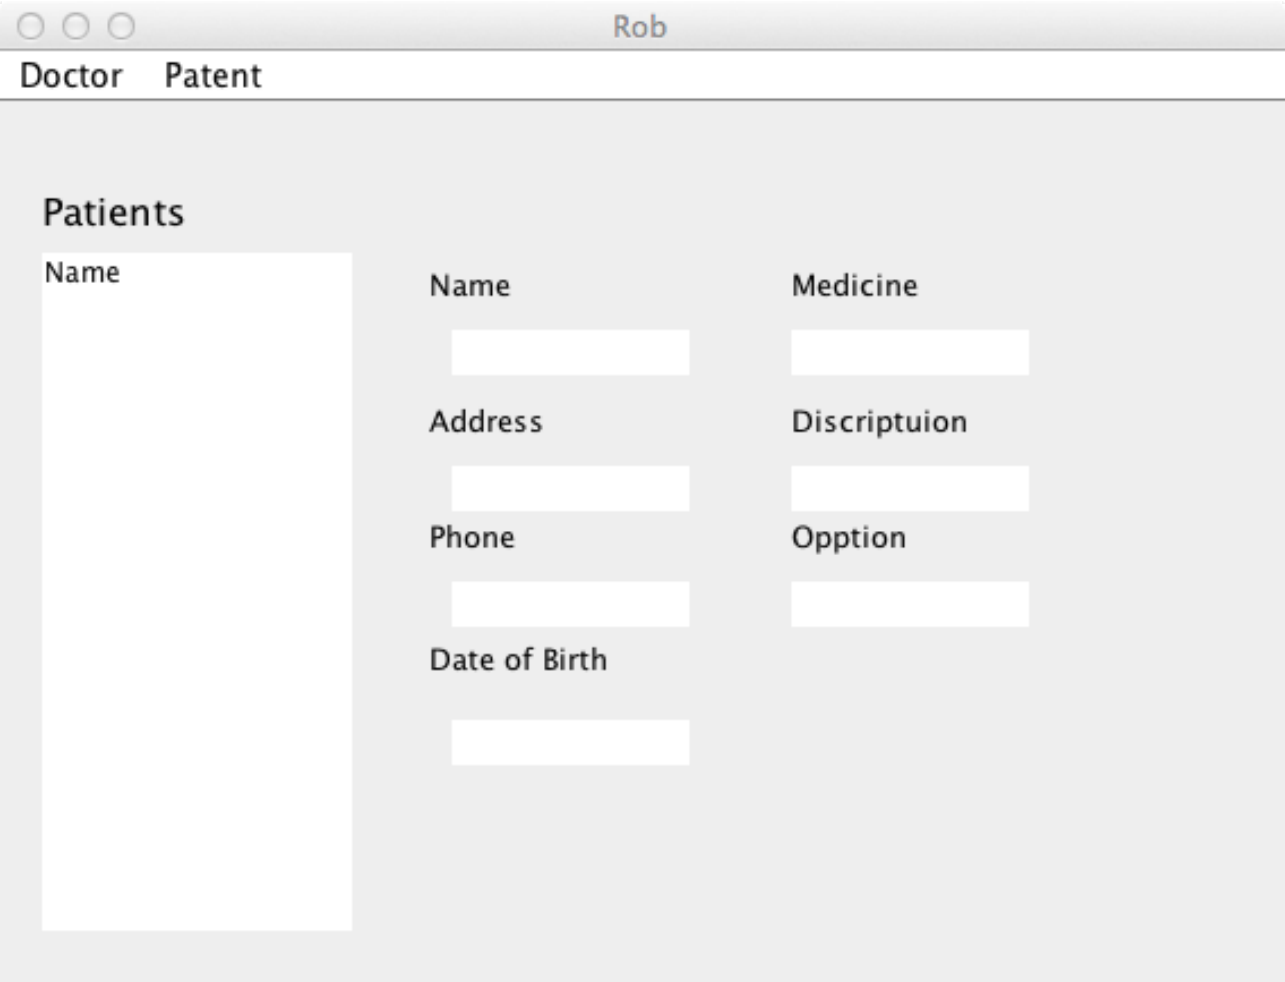

A mockup of a main window. The window has a title bar with three window control buttons (minimize, maximize, close) and the title "Rob". Below the title bar is a menu bar with two items: "Doctor" and "Patent". The main content area is light gray. On the left side, there is a section titled "Patients" with a large, empty white rectangular box below it. To the right of this box, there are two columns of form fields. The first column has four labels: "Name", "Address", "Phone", and "Date of Birth", each followed by a text input field. The second column has three labels: "Medicine", "Discription", and "Opption", each followed by a text input field.

Add Patient

A screenshot of a macOS-style window titled "Add Patient". The window has a title bar with three colored buttons (red, yellow, green) on the left. The main content area is light gray and contains five text input fields stacked vertically, each with a label above it: "Name", "Address", "Phone", and "Date of Birth". The "Name" field is currently selected with a blue border. Below the input fields is a single "Add Patient" button.

List of Patients
